JEANS, $475, by Citizens of Humanity, 02 8060 3006.

they class act Petra Flannery

CLIENTS: Mila Kunis, Emma Stone, Zoe Saldana, Megan Fox, Faith Hill.
SIGNATURE STYLE: "Classic, but with modern, clean lines. I like to mix a feminine look with a little edge to keep it fresh - think Givenchy and YSL. Calvin Klein is also a master of the chic, clean line."

SECRET STYLING WEAPON: "Undergarments. The Commando underwear brand sells boy shorts that eliminate panty lines. And I love the Natori sheer bra. It has a clear tab between each cup."

FAVOURITE FASHION MOMENT: "There have been a few great ones on the red carpet with Mila, but the one that stands out was her strapless red Alexander McQueen at last year's SAG Awards. The colour was so cool. It was captivating and slightly edgier than the standard red we often see at award shows. It also had a little pattern, which gave it some edge."

HOW TO LOOK A-LIST: "A great wide leg jean will take you from day to night."
BUY THIS NOW: "During the day, wear the jeans with a striped T-shirt and make it more chic during the evening by putting on a silk blouse."

SUNGLASSES, $550 approx, by Louis Vuitton, 1300 883 880.

the pragmatist Cher Coulter

CLIENTS: Kate Bosworth, Sienna Miller, Liv Ullmann, Rosie Huntington-Whiteley, Elizabeth Olsen.

SIGNATURE STYLE: "Effortless, comfortable and fashionable. When I work with Kate [Bosworth] I can be a bit more bohemian. For Rosie [Huntington-Whiteley] the look is more polished and sexy but you can see a similar trail through it."

MY SECRET STYLING WEAPON: "I've got this hole puncher that works on leather. It's great because I often need to put an extra hole in a belt or on a shoe strap when it is designed to go around the ankle. If anything is a little too big - we can fix it with an extra hole!"

FAVOURITE FASHION MOMENT: "The Alexander McQueen dress that Kate wore to the 2009 Vanity Fair Oscars party was amazing. When it hit the light it would shine and shimmer in many different ways. The beading was incredible. It was like a lizard, very reptile-ish."

HOW TO LOOK A-LIST: "I love dark sunglasses. That's a tip."
BUY THIS NOW: "An interesting belt. You don't have to spend a lot. The best ones I've found are vintage and have a point of difference, like a gold clasp or a snake pattern, that can totally change an outfit."

the sophisticate Anna Bingemann

CLIENTS: Naomi Watts, Uma Thurman, Claire Danes, Gwyneth Paltrow.
SIGNATURE STYLE: "I tend to go towards European designers. It's a natural instinct. I'm always aiming for a look that's classic, timeless and sophisticated. You don't want to really stand

"When Naomi went to the Oscars"

SECRET STYLING WEAPON: "It's all about good underwear. Spanx are a necessity when wearing a figure-hugging gown, just to ensure there are also no lines. And you always need a good bra. My favourite is Chantelle or, if you are smaller, Cosabella is great."

out... but you do want to be remembered."

SECRET STYLING WEAPON: "It's all about good underwear. Spanx are a necessity when wearing a figure-hugging gown, just to ensure there are also no lines. And you always need a good bra. My favourite is Chantelle or, if you are smaller, Cosabella is great."

FAVOURITE FASHION MOMENTS: "When Naomi was pregnant and we were still hiding it, we had a blue Gucci dress custom-made for the 2007 Golden Globes. That is one of my favourites. She was a good five months [pregnant] and no one knew. And when I do the Oscars it's all about finding the colour that no one else is wearing, because there are so many girls on the carpet at once and you want to stand out in the right way."

HOW TO LOOK A-LIST: "If you're frightened of a particular trend, try it out via an accessory. For example, if bold colours are in, wear black but carry a bright clutch. If leopard is in, showcase it on a belt or in your shoes."

BUY THIS NOW: "Invest in a really good pair of black shoes or heels and a great black jacket. White T-shirts are essential but there is no need to spend a lot on them."
